

THE SDA SLICE

It was quite a heartwarming experience as both our CDC and Elementary students put out their best effort in their Thanksgiving program performance. We also thank the parents for attending the program. Your continued support and presence are greatly appreciated. As we have our break this week, we hope everyone will have a wonderful and blessed Thanksgiving celebration!

Congratulations to everyone who received an award! The effort you have put out has finally paid off! For those that didn't receive one we still commend you for the effort you gave. We hope that all of you will keep it up in the upcoming 2nd Quarter.

Here's our toddlers class with Ms. Debra and in the picture, they are being taught the correct way to hold their scissors. Not only does it help to improve their hand-eye coordination, but it also helps to develop their fine motor skills.

Great job kiddos!

With their teachers supervision, our preschool students are busy doing their free play activity. These activities provide students with opportunities to express their creativity while learning as they play. Drawing it allows self-expression and playing with animals and insect toys can spark curiosity and exploration of the natural world.

These past few weeks, our students from the Pre-Kinder class have been learning force and motion. They all did this through classroom experiments, engaging in hands on activities. Their lesson is now on levers with their question being, "How do levers make work easier?" Now here they are, with their ping pong ball launcher, trying to put their theories to the test.

REMINDER:
To keep our students safe and sound, we kindly ask that all parents pick up their little ones at the exit gate. We request that students refrain from wandering to their cars unaccompanied.
